

Cyber-Bullying Policy and Procedure

Simplified Version

If you believe you or someone else is the victim of cyber-bullying, you must speak to an adult as soon as possible. This person could be a teacher, group leader or the Welfare Officer.

What is bullying?

Cyber-bullying is an aggressive, intentional act carried out by a group or individual using electronic forms of contact repeatedly over time against a victim who cannot easily defend himself/herself.

-  Do not answer abusive messages but log and report them.
-  Do not give out personal IT details
-  Stay in public areas in chat rooms
-  Never reply to someone you do not know
-  Never reply to abusive e-mails
-  Do not delete anything until it has been shown to your teacher, group leader or the Welfare Officer
